

Japanese Review Worksheet

1.

This ramen is very delicious.

2.

My friend studied Japanese every day before the trip.

3.

Yesterday I didn't visit the famous temple in Kyoto.

4.

Last week I ate fresh sushi at a small restaurant in Tokyo.

5.

Tomorrow my tired friend will not go to the crowded shopping district.

6.

Next month I will go to Osaka with my travel companion.

7.

I want to buy beautiful souvenirs for my family, but they're expensive.

8.

My adventurous friend wants to climb Mount Fuji and see the amazing sunrise.

9.

I think the quiet Japanese garden is very peaceful.

10.

I woke up early at 6 o'clock and ate a traditional Japanese breakfast at the ryokan.

11.

My friend is taking many beautiful photos at the ancient shrine now.

12.

Yesterday I went to the famous temple with my tour guide, prayed for two minutes, and then walked to a nearby cafe together.

13.

Please wait for me at 3 o'clock at the big clock in front of Tokyo Station.

14.

My Japanese host family has been living in this traditional neighborhood in Kyoto for twenty years.

15.

Last night I took a relaxing hot bath at the onsen, drank cold green tea, and then watched the beautiful sunset from my room with my travel companion.

Bonus Questions

Bonus 1.

Have you ever been to Mount Fuji?

(Translate the question and then also write your answer below: Yes, I have been there once/twice/etc. OR No, I have never been there.)

Bonus 2.

I like {season 1} more than {season 2} because it is {reason}.

(Pick two seasons to compare: Spring, Summer, Fall, Winter and then a reason why you prefer it)
